

Reclaiming Feminism: EnGendering Change

The Association of Women Educators' national biennial conference 2014

<http://www.awe.asn.au/drupal/content/reclaiming-feminism-engendering-change>

Program Schedule

Friday 3rd October – Saturday 4th October

Day 1
Rooms	McAuley Room	Coolock Room	Gibson Room	Wonga Wonga Room (upstairs)
8.00 – 9.00	Tea and Coffee, Registration
9.00 – 9.05	Welcome
Session 1 9.05 -9.35	Is there an app for where we are at? Dale Spender
Session 2 9.35 – 10.05	Feminism, memory and histories of education: Revisiting gender equity narratives Julie McLeod
Session 3 10.10 – 10.45	Leaderism, edu-capitalism and gender Jill Blackmore
10.45 – 11.00	Morning tea
Session 4 11.00 – 11.35	Does curriculum still matter? Lyn Yates

Session 5 11.35 – 12.10	Whither women in leadership? Debunking some of the myths of gender equity in Australian education (Presentation) Jane Wilkinson	Unsettling Research: Creating spaces for transformative thinking around issues of gender in a Western Queensland community (Presentation) Sherilyn Lennon	Feminist practice in sexuality education: The importance of the ‘gender lens’ in the history of transformative practice (Presentation) Debbie Ollis	The Case for a Transformative Feminist Curriculum in Legal Education (Seminar with discussion) Kate Galloway & Melissa Castan
Session 6 12.10 – 12.45	Exploring emotion work in education: What is its value? (Presentation) Kay Bishop	Gender and multiculturalism at school - The NESB girls’ voices (Presentation) Ana Borges	White Ribbon Australia’s Breaking the Silence Schools Program: A primary prevention program for cultural change (Presentation) Samantha Murray	Social media as a site for feminist education activism (Presentation) Margaret Clark
12.45 – 1.35	Lunch
Session 7 1.35 – 2.10	Backward Mapping: A Case Study of Pedagogical and Assessment Practices to Support Equitable and Sustainable Improvement (Presentation and discussion) Christine Ludwig and Kay Boulden	Supporting Gender Diversity and Sexual Diversity in Schools: Lessons from the Safe Schools Coalition (Presentation and discussion) Sally Richardson and Joel Radcliffe	Erotising Inequality: Why schools need to address the influence of pornography and a feminist analysis is crucial (Workshop) Maree Crabbe	Stepping Up: The YWCA Women’s Leadership Pathway (Presentation) Chelsea Winskill
Session 8 2.10 – 2.50				Leadership for Community Change: YWCA Classroom Activities (Workshop) Chelsea Winskill
2.50 – 3.05	Afternoon tea
3.05 – 3.15	Performance by Red Pavilion
Session 9 3.15 – 4.15	Q&A with lead presenters on conference themes
5.00	Pre-dinner drinks and live music
6.00 – 9.30	Dinner with speaker Clementine Ford

Day 2

Rooms	McAuley Room	Coolock Room	Gibson Room	Wonga Wonga Room (upstairs)
8.00 – 9.00	Tea and coffee
9.00 – 9.05	Welcome
Session 1 9.05 -9.25	Performance by Red Pavilion
Session 2 9.25 – 10.00	Skin pedagogies and female bodies Jane Kenway
Session 3 10.00 – 10.35	Feminism for the early years: a diffractive analysis Bronwyn Davies
10.35 – 11.00	Morning tea
Session 4 11.00 – 11.35	Educating for diversity and social justice Amanda Keddle
Session 5 11.35 – 12.10	Bullying girls and workplace Queen Bees: Are there new criteria for success? (Presentation) Maureen Owen and Kay Bishop	Where is Feminism for Early Childhood Educators? (Presentation) Kylie Smith & Kate Alexander	Hearing Young Women's Voices: The Equality Rights Alliance Young Women's Advisory Group policy position on sexuality and respectful relationships education (Presentation) Sienna Aguilar & Safa Rahbar	Women and girls into non traditional occupations: the work of eS4W, a national women's alliance (Presentation) Sally Jope
Session 6 12.10 – 12.45	Using cogenerative dialoguing to build equitable relations and engage educational stakeholders (Presentation) Linda Willis	"Grow a Pair" How to make friends, raise funds, while creating awareness (Performance and activist story) Janine Aitken & Juanita Van Dam	The challenge of systematisation in respectful relationships education (Presentation) Emily Maguire	The Demolition of Gender Bias in Trade Careers: an action agenda for schools (Presentation) Karen Struthers

12.45 – 1.35	Lunch
Session 7 1.35 – 2.10	Gender, schools and social justice: feminism in education for the twenty-first century Raewyn Connell
Session 8 2.10 – 3.05		‘It’s Not as Easy as Just Come Out’: how do feminist educators support multicultural multifaith LGBTIQ young people? (Workshop) Maria Pallota-Chiarolli	Backward Mapping: A Case Study of Pedagogical and Assessment Practices to Support Equitable and Sustainable Improvement (Workshop) Christine Ludwig and Kay Boulden	The power of women telling their difficult stories through the Personal Documentary form (Presentation and discussion) Ginene Humphrey
3.05 – 3.15	Afternoon tea
Session 9 3.15 – 4.15	Q&A with lead presenters on conference themes
4.15 – 4.30	Closing address - AWE National Co-Convenor, Roselynn Anderson
4.30 – 5.30	Farewell drink

Sunday brunch will be at 9.30 in the Botanic Gardens at Mount Coot-tha, not far from Mercy Place, on 152 Mt Coot-tha Road, Toowong.

Thank you to our supporters

Social Change Education
www.teachjustice.com.au

Chris Henderson Coaching
<http://www.chrishendersoncoaching.com>

Conscious Films
<https://www.facebook.com/Consciousfilms/info>

Senator Larissa Waters
<http://larissa-waters.greensmps.org.au>

Women in Leadership Summit
<http://www.womenleadersummit.com>

Australian Women Against Violence Alliance
www.awava.org.au