

THIS COULD BE YOU...

hear how you can plug into the ICT-world from career women who are making a name for themselves

Sessions include: Fun ICT activities for girls
Information on career and study opportunities for girls
Female industry speakers
Information booths for post school pathways
Light refreshments will be provided

When: Wednesday, 28 July 2004
6.15pm registration; 6.30pm start
Finishing approx 9.15pm

Where: The University of Queensland
St Lucia Campus, Steele Building
(building no. 3), Lecture Theatre 206, (J8 on campus map, access from Staff House Road)

How to register: An online booking form is available at www.gidgits.org

Free parking available in the multi-level carpark on the Sir Fred Schonell Drive entrance to UQ.

The event is FREE, however numbers are limited so register now!

An ICT event for girls

Who should attend:

Girls in years 8, 9 and 10; parents; teachers; school ICT leaders; Guidance Officers; and Career Counsellors from all areas of Brisbane, Ipswich and surrounding areas.

How to get there: Transinfo 131230, www.transinfo.qld.gov.au or www.uq.edu.au/maps (for campus map and directions to the campus by bus, ferry, city cat, car and train).

For more information contact tanja.obstoj@qed.qld.gov.au or visit www.gidgits.org

All girls receive a free sample bag!

Queensland University of Technology

